BELLEVILLE'S MAYOR VETOES ANTI-"CANNING" ORDINANCE.

Chief Executive Opposes the Measure to Stop the Sale of Beer in Buckets.

Mayor John B. Hay of Belleville las night vetoed the ordinance to prohibit been "canning" in that city, upon the grounds that the measure would confer ministeria powers upon the police.

At a meeting two weeks ago the Belleville At a meeting two weeks ago the Belleville Council passed the ordinance, which sought to put an end to the practice of persons sending utensils to a salvon for a pint, quart or any quantity of brew, the custom being known as "canning," "rushing the growler," "chasing the duck," etc.

Advocates of the measure argued that it would break up the revels of disorderly men who were in the habit of gathering in back yards and alleyways, and for a few cents accumulating an amount of beer sufficient to cause intoxication in a wholesale degree

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.

When the bowels move irregularly the entire bodily system must suffer. Constipation more frequently occurs among women and it manifests itself in provoking profuse leucorrhea and other serious female diseases. Regular bowels will result in a complete cure when you use Mull's Grape Tonic. Unlike pills and ordinary cathartics, this remedy is a mild, gentle laxative in addition to being a greater fiesh-builder, blood-maker and strength-giver than cod liver oil or any other preparation recommended for that purposs. Mull's Grape Tonic will permanently cure the most obstinate case of constipation, and the numerous afflictions that invariably follow in its wake. No matter if it is piles, liver complaint, kidney disorder, vertigo, palpitation of the heart, diarrhea or the self-poisoning which follows when the undigested food remains in the bowels where it putrefies and empties highly diseased germs into the blood, such as typhoid and malaria, Mul's Grape Tonic will positively cure. Large sample bottle will be sent free to any address en receipt of 10 cents to cover postage, by the Lightning Medicine Co., Rock Island, Ill. Send name of your druggist. In some cities, as in Lancaster, Pa., a protest has been raised over the action of railroad employes who refused to permit Western Union boys to deliver telegrams to passengers en rolle.

This new rule is the outcome of the contest between the Postal Telegraph and the Western Union companies for the control of the business of the road.

The Postal Company last summer obtained exclusive right to do business under its new contract. An official of the Pennsylvania Railroad said to-day that it was not intended to prevent the delivery of elegrams to passengers, but to protect the Postal Company, and that the rule has been misunderstood by some of the employes.

The intention is to prevent the Western Central Pacific Railroad Files Action Against the Executors of the Huntington Estate.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 24.-Walter Morshead, London lawyer, said to be one of the oldest conveyancers in the British capital, is plaintiff on behalf of the Central Pacific Railroad against Charles H. Tweed Isaac E. Gates and Arabella Huntington, as executors of Collis P, Huntington, and the Central Pacific Railread Company in a suit in the Supreme Court to compel them to account for the profits made by Collie P. Huntington and pay them over with legal interest to the Central Pacific Railroad Company.

The plaintiff also prays for an order enjoining the executors "from paying out, dis-tributing or in any way disposing of or parting with the assets" of the Huntington estate.

The sum of $190,000,000 is involved in the

The sum of $190,000,000 is involved in the suit. Continued fraud up to Huntington's death is alleged, the claim being that through construction and other companies which equipped the Central Pacific, and of which Huntington and his friends were the heads, all the profits of the railroad were diverted into their pockets.

Prior to the serving of the summons inthe suit Judge Fitzgerald issued an order to the executors to show cause why they should not file an inventory of the Huntington estate. This part of the case was to have come up before the Surrogate tomorrow, but the hearing has been adjourned to December 2.

The complaint says:

The complaint says:
"That the said Collis P. Huntington, to gether with Leland Stanford, Charle Crocker and Mark Hopkins, were director gether with Leiand Stanford, Charles Crocker and Mark Hopkins, were directors and officers of the said Central Pacific Railroad Company, and to the time of their decease they were, as plaintiff is informed and believes, in control of the corporate affairs of the said Central Pacific Railroad Company. And the said C. P. Huntungtor was, in addition, the financial agent of the said Central Pacific Railroad Company in New York and in Washington, and until the year 1833 held a general power of attorney to transact all the corporate business of the company as its general agent. "That, as the plaintiff is informed and believes, the said Huntington and his associates, Stanford, Crocker and Hopkins, organized companies known as the Contract and Finance Company, the Western Development Company, the Pacific Improvement Company, the Pacific Express Company, the Rocky Mountain Coal Company and other companies which were owned or controlled by Huntington and associates and that these men used the names of these concerns for the construction, equipment and repairing of the Central Pacific Railroad Company and for the Central Pacific Railroad, were at all times interested in the results of the contracts made between that company and the other companies. "And that in pursuance of these frauduinterested in the results of the contracts made between that company and the other companies.

"And that in pursuance of these fraudulent arrangements, as the plaintiff believes, the said Huntington and associates from time to time delivered to themselves the whole or greater part of the $30,000,000 United States bonds and likewise the whole or greater part of the bonds and capital stock of the Central Pacific Raliroad, valued at $163,000,000, which bonds and stocks were obtained in pretended payment to the companies aforesaid."

The plaintiff further alleges that the actual cost of the construction of the Central and its leased lines was not more than $9,000,000 and that all the other "pretended payments" were "fraudulent." "grossiy excessive" and "collusive," and that the United States bonds and the bonds and stocks of the Central Pacific were actually "converted to their own use or uses by the said Huntington and his associates."
